RAWLINSON & HUNTER LLP ANNOUNCES THREE NEW DIRECTOR APPOINTMENTS

Rawlinson & Hunter LLP, the UK's largest combined firm of Chartered Accountants and Chartered Tax Advisers, is delighted to announce the appointment of three new Directors.

Louise Catt advises both corporate and non-corporate entities, providing and overseeing the delivery of accounting, advisory and outsourcing services. Louise's portfolio includes entrepreneurial ultra-high net worth individuals, family offices and owner managed businesses at all stages of development, from start-ups to large trading entities. She has extensive experience of working with our clients' UK affairs but also acting as a focal point for administration and oversight of those clients' international structures. Louise is an outsourcing specialist and part of the senior management team at R&H leading the firm's Business Services Group.

Craig Davies, Partner and Head of Business Services, commented:

'Louise's promotion to Director recognises her expertise in advising and assisting our clients, which has proven to be an invaluable asset in the near 10 years that she has been with us. Her skill, dedication and attention to detail have consistently delivered outstanding results for clients with Louise expertly overseeing delivery to the client across all areas of the practice. Louise's professionalism and diligence in providing outsourced accounting and advisory services to our corporate family office clients will undoubtedly continue to drive success for our firm.'

Claire Osborne's portfolio includes entrepreneurs, the family offices of ultra-high net worth individuals, various member bodies and owner managed businesses, delivering and overseeing accounting, advisory and outsourcing services for those clients as well as overseeing the Firm's delivery to those clients more broadly. Her clients are at all stages of development from start-ups through to established multi-jurisdictional families and businesses and her experience is broad as a result. In addition, Claire provides essential support to the Partner group and Firm by heading up the forty plus strong team in our Business Services Group.

Craig Davies, Partner and Head of Business Services, commented:

'Claire has been with the Firm for over 20 years, having trained with us and progressed through the ranks. She has retained many clients on her journey, and grown with them, and that stands as a testament of the strength of the relationships she has been able to forge with clients and the quality of support she offers. Claire also continues to provide invaluable support in helping to run a large and diverse team with development of staff and talent a top priority.'

Mark Wong is a director in the Private Client Services Team and re-joined Rawlinson & Hunter in 2023 after previously serving with the firm from 2016 to 2022. He has also worked at the Big 4 and mid-tier firms. Mark has extensive experience in looking after the tax affairs of high-net worth individuals, providing tax compliance and advisory services. Many of Mark's clients have an international element and his client portfolio includes both UK and non-UK domiciled individuals, non-residents and offshore trusts as well as fund executives.

Alan Ive, Partner and Head of the Private Client Tax Team, commented:

'Mark has previously served the Firm for eight years and we are delighted to welcome him back. Mark's role as a Director recognises his technical excellence and well-rounded expertise in assisting clients with their tax affairs, particularly when it comes to complex international matters. Mark will no doubt be looking forward to advising his clients on the expected changes afoot.'
